Property Details

A bright two bedroom, two bathroom flat with a Juliet balcony, gardens and a garage, within a sought-after, gated mews. One of the best in the development this apartment has multiple perks, set peacefully to the rear of the first building, on the top floor enjoying additional privacy and light, plus a large garage and fibre optic broadband. The open-plan living space has a cosy lounge area, space for a large dining table and a Juliet balcony. The contemporary separate kitchen is adjacent, with plenty of storage options, all the mod-cons and quartz surfaces. The principal bedroom has cosy carpets and built-in storage plus an en-suite with heated towel rail, rain shower and mirrored, lit cabinetry with in-built speaker and anti-steam function. The second bedroom is currently utilised as a nursery, easily repurposed to a guest room or office. The modern family sized bathroom has a bath and there is further storage in two cupboards in the hall. With access to two communal gardens, there is plenty of outside space for the summer months, plus bike storage by arrangement and an unrivalled location.
