Property Details

A striking four double bedroom, three bathroom end-of-terrace contemporary home with a private garage, offering over 2,500 square feet of versatile living space. Set on the historic site of the legendary Choice FM radio station, commemorated by a blue heritage plaque, the property blends architectural character with modern design in a highly sought-after Brixton location. The heart of the home is the spectacular open-plan reception kitchen, stretching over eleven metres with soaring ceilings and almost a full wall of glass flooding the space with natural light. Gloss cabinetry lines both sides, centred around a sociable island and breakfast bar, complemented by a gold mirrored splashback and large walk-in pantry. The adjoining living area flows onto a low-maintenance garden, laid to paving and framed with mature greenery. Upstairs, two first-floor bedrooms boast en-suites, one with a dressing room, while a striking spiral staircase leads to the top floor where two further doubles share a stylish bathroom. Thoughtfully arranged, each bedroom enjoys separation and privacy, creating a flexible home suited to families, couples, or sharers.
