Property Details

An attractive two bedroom apartment with a Juliet balcony, set within a secure gated development featuring communal gardens, a playground, bike storage and private access directly into Brockwell Park. Positioned on the first floor, the apartment enjoys a bright and private ambience with a dual-aspect open-plan reception bathed in natural light. A Juliet balcony enhances the space, perfect for morning coffee or catching a summer breeze. The modern kitchen is set back from the lounge, boasting sleek cabinetry, integrated appliances including a new Neff oven and dishwasher, and plentiful storage. Both bedrooms are generously proportioned with neutral décor and plush carpets. The generous principal bedroom accommodates wardrobes and space for a dressing table if desired, while the second room currently serves as a home office and walk-in wardrobe, easily reconfigured with a double bed if desired. A stylish bathroom with an over-bath shower and a spacious entrance hallway with storage complete the home. Gardens surrounding the development, including a playground, communal bike store and grassy banks, and to add even more appeal, there is a healthy sum in the reserve fund to help toward maintaining the building.
