Situated in a popular area of Cleethorpes, this beautifully presented 1930's detached home offers spacious and versatile accommodation, retaining traditional features while providing practical modern living. Ideally located close to local amenities, schools, transport links, and within walking distance of the seafront, the property is well suited for family life.

The accommodation comprises a welcoming entrance hall, bay fronted lounge, downstairs cloakroom, and an impressive open plan living/dining kitchen. The kitchen is well appointed with modern shaker style units, complemented by a central island and full range of integrated appliances. Forming the heart of the home, this superb space provides an ideal setting for both everyday living and socialising, with sliding doors opening onto the rear garden and a log burner adding warmth and appeal.

To the first floor, the property offers four good sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Two spacious double bedrooms feature original fireplaces, while all the bedrooms are enhanced by plantation shutters. The layout offers flexibility to suit a range of requirements whether used as additional bedrooms, or dressing room/home office space.

Externally, the property enjoys an attractive frontage, set well back from the road behind a spacious driveway providing parking for several vehicles. The property also benefits from the installation of solar panels, helping to improve energy efficiency and reduce running costs.

Designed for low maintenance, the rear garden features a spacious Indian sandstone patio together with a summer house, creating an excellent outdoor seating and entertaining area. A detached garage provides further useful storage and parking options.
