A substantial and beautifully presented four-bedroom detached family home, occupying a generous plot and offering exceptionally versatile accommodation, including a large detached annexe / leisure building—ideal for multi-generational living, working from home or entertaining on a serious scale.

Set behind gated frontage with ample off-street parking and garage, this impressive property has been thoughtfully extended and modernised while retaining a solid, traditional feel throughout.

The Main House

The ground floor offers well-balanced living space, starting with a welcoming hallway and cloakroom. A generous 23'7 lounge provides an excellent main reception room, off of the hallway is the dining area and into a modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances. A separate utility room, additional storage areas and a ground-floor bedroom four / study add real practicality for family life.

Upstairs, the first floor continues to impress with a spacious principal bedroom suite, complete with a large dressing room and stylish en-suite bathroom. There are two further well-proportioned bedrooms and a contemporary family bathroom, finished to a high standard.

Annexe / Leisure Building

A real standout feature of this home is the substantial detached annexe to the rear. Currently arranged as a bar and lounge area measuring nearly 40ft, with an additional room used as a gym / bedroom and its own bathroom, this space offers enormous flexibility. Whether for extended family, home business use or simply entertaining friends, it's a rare and valuable addition.

Outside

The rear garden is a superb size, mainly laid to artificial lawn with patio seating areas, offering excellent privacy and plenty of space for family enjoyment. To the front, the property benefits from gated access, ample parking and a garage.

Misrepresentation Act 1967: These details are prepared as a general guide only, and should not be relied upon as a basis to enter a legal contract or commit expenditure. And any interested party should rely solely on their own Surveyor, Solicitor/Conveyancer or other professionals before committing themselves to any expenditure or other legal commitments. If any interested party wishes to rely upon any information from the Agent, then a request should be made and specific written confirmation can be provided. The Agent will not be responsible for any verbal statement made by the Agent or any member of Staff, as only a specific written confirmation can be provided. The Agent will not be responsible for any loss other than what specific written confirmation has been requested.

Property Misdescription Act 1991 The Agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixture, fittings or services and so does not verify they are in working order, fit for purpose, or within ownership of the sellers, therefore the buyer must assume the information is incorrect. Neither has the Agent checked the legal documentation to verify legal status of the property. A buyer must assume the information is incorrect until it has been verified by their own Solicitors/Conveyancers. Nothing concerning the type of construction or the condition of the structure is to be implied from the photograph or plans for the property. Photographs of the interior of the property are given purely to give an indication of décor/style etc., and does not imply that any furniture/fittings etc., are included. A fixtures & fittings list will be provided by the Solicitors/Conveyancers in due course. The sales particulars may change in the course of time and any interested party is advised to make a final inspection of the property prior to exchange of contracts.
