Southbury Road, EN1 1PL

Positioned within a secure, private gated development just moments from the vibrant amenities of Enfield Town Centre, this exceptional two bedroom first floor flat has been thoughtfully designed to offer refined modern living with an emphasis on comfort, style, and practicality. Ideally situated, the property benefits from a gentle ascent with minimal stairs, while maintaining a sense of privacy and security, further enhanced by a controlled entry phone system.

The interior is finished to an impressive specification throughout, with engineered hardwood flooring laid over premium acoustic gold underlay, creating both warmth and tranquillity underfoot. Walls are elegantly dressed in matt white diamond paint, durable and washable, while a Hive smart heating system ensures effortless climate control all year round. Bespoke, made-to-measure blinds have been installed throughout, providing both thermal efficiency and a sleek, tailored aesthetic.

The accommodation unfolds into a generous reception room, beautifully illuminated by natural light via a charming Juliet balcony. The adjoining kitchen is well appointed with extensive worktop space and cupboard units, complemented by a smart Samsung oven and induction cooktop (untested), both of which benefit from the reassurance of approximately 3-4 years remaining warranty.

Both bedrooms are sizeable, with the principal suite enjoying a bespoke built-in wardrobe with integrated lighting, as well as a stylish en-suite shower room. This space is finished with large format porcelain tiles, a fitted vanity unit, and thoughtfully integrated storage, including two shower niches and additional external niches.

The main shower room is equally striking, showcasing a contemporary three-piece suite
