50% Shared Ownership. Kings Group are delighted to present this beautiful two bedroom flat in a modern development boasting stunning views across the London skyline. The property is in immaculate condition throughout and benefits from a spacious light and airy living room with dining space and a modern fitted kitchen, south facing balcony, two double bedrooms, a three-piece family bathroom suite and ample storage space throughout. The property further benefits from an allocated parking space in the car park. This would be an ideal opportunity for a first time buyer or an investor.

Situated in the heart of the regeneration, the property is minutes away from White Hart Lane Station with trains going to Seven Sisters Station (Victoria Line) then directly into Liverpool Street Station. Excellent bus routes connect Central London and the surrounding areas. The property is moments away from local schools, amenities and restaurants and there is further development with new shops being built alongside the new stadium. Proposals are in the pipeline for a new public square with new restaurants and shops creating new jobs and growth within the local area.
