Locality:

Capworth Street is situated in the Leyton area, within the London Borough of Waltham Forest. It's a well-connected residential area with a good selection of local amenities. For public transport, residents have easy access to several train stations. Leyton Midland Road Station is just a short walk away and offers Overground services. Walthamstow Central Station, around 0.7Miles away, provides both Victoria Line Underground and Overground connections, while Walthamstow Queen's Road Station also offers Overground services at a similar distance.

The area is also well served by schools. George Mitchell School, an all-through school rated "Good" by Ofsted, is located about 630 yards away. St Joseph's Catholic Junior School, which has an "Outstanding" rating, is around 670 yards away on Marsh Lane. Thomas Gamuel Primary School, also rated "Good," is within walking distance on Colchester Road. Secondary education options include Norlington School and 6th Form on Norlington Road, approximately 0.6 miles away, and Kelmscott School on Markhouse Road, which is about 0.7 miles from Capworth Street—both schools rated "Good" by Ofsted. These amenities make the area a convenient and family-friendly place to live.
