Due to licensing restrictions, please note that this property can only be let to a single household (a couple or a family), as there is no HMO licence in place.

Located just moments from Gipsy Hill Station, this well-proportioned two double bedroom Victorian conversion apartment offers both character and convenience.

Situated on the basement level, the property comprises a spacious reception room with a bay window and a stunning original fireplace, alongside an open-plan kitchen—creating an ideal space for entertaining. Both double bedrooms overlook the rear of the property, and the accommodation is completed by a modern three-piece bathroom.

Locations do not get much better than Whiteley Road; this quiet and picturesque residential street is made up of a charming mix of early and late Victorian houses. Gipsy Hill Station is just a short stroll away (approximately 0.3 miles), providing regular services to London Victoria and London Bridge, as well as connections to Sutton and Beckenham Junction. Closer to home, the ever-popular Crystal Palace Triangle is around 0.5 miles away, offering a wide selection of boutique bars, restaurants, and cafés.
