

4 Phipps Drive, Gloucester, GL2 2JU

Asking Price £525,000

Positioned within an exclusive development of fewer than 100 homes, this exceptional nearly new property was formerly the show home for The Quarters, Naas Lane—an attractive semi-rural setting on the southern edge of Gloucester, close to Quedgeley. Perfectly balancing town and country living, the location provides convenient access to Gloucester, excellent commuter links, scenic walking and cycling routes, and nearby green spaces.

This impressive home offers a high specification throughout, enhanced by approximately £35,000 worth of premium upgrades. Stylish Karndean flooring flows through the ground floor, while the contemporary kitchen is fitted with fully integrated appliances, creating a sleek and practical space for modern living. A standout feature is the bespoke, fully fitted home office—ideal for remote working.

The property enjoys a pleasant outlook overlooking a balancing pond, with a beautifully maintained south-facing garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining in the warmer months. Additional benefits include solar panels, an EV charging point and garage with driveway parking.

Immaculately presented and thoughtfully upgraded, this home offers a rare opportunity to acquire a high-quality property in a desirable and well-connected location.
