MMS Sale are completely impressed by this stunning spit level maisonette in Maidstone. You really are getting so much for your money with what's on offer and internal viewings are highly recommended.
Upon entering via a flight of stairs that take you to the first floor accommodation, where you are immediately hit by the light flooding into the property. A lovely size lounge situated to the rear has two large windows for the extra light. The modern kitchen comes complete with high gloss units and complimenting splash back and tiled floor. The second bedroom can also be found on this level and then there's the added benefit of a handy separate wc. On the second floor is where you will find a beautiful master bedroom and access to the bigger than average bathroom with a convenient utility area which has plumbing for the washing machine. Externally there is a private front garden which is mostly lawn with established plants and flowers. There is also a carport with allocated parking for one car, plus one visitors parking space in the complex.
