A unique and quirky property with bags of character and plenty of space has just hit the sales market and deserves and internal viewing.

Set in the heart of Strood with many amenities just a stone through away, this three bedroom detached house with a drive for two cars and a garage could be just what you're looking for.

The large and bright hallway invites you to a good size lounge with brick fireplace housing a free standing electric fire. The bathroom can be found at the end of the hall way and then there's a good size separate dining room. The kitchen is currently undergoing a refurb and has a convenient utility area just to the side. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms and an added bonus of a 2nd W.C. The garden is separated with gated arch ways to create different areas to be able to enjoy. Strood train station is just a four minute walk away giving easy access to London and the Kent coast. The house is centrally heated and has double glazing and really could make a perfect home. Call now to book your internal viewing
