Disclaimer Important Notice: In accordance with the Property Misdescriptions Act (1991) we have prepared these Sales Particulars as a general guide to give a broad description of the property. They are not intended to constitute part of an offer or contract. We have not carried out a structural survey and the services, appliances and specific fittings have not been tested. Neither has the Agent checked legal documentation to verify the legal status of the property or the validity of any guarantees. All photographs, measurements, floorplans and distances referred to are given as a guide only and should not be relied upon for the purchase of carpets or any other fixtures or fittings. Lease details, service charges and ground rent (where applicable) are given as a guide only and should be checked and confirmed by your solicitor prior to exchange of contracts. Please note, if the property is being purchased as buy to let, you should consider whether selective licensing is applicable.

A non-refundable purchaser administration fee will be payable by the successful buyer to cover AML checks, identity verification, and proof of funds validation, with full details provided upon offer acceptance.

River Court

Spalding, PE11 1DP

A rare opportunity to acquire a spacious and highly individual home set on the sought-after Bath Lane in the heart of Spalding, just moments from the town centre and the River Welland. This former restaurant and bar, converted in the 1990s, offers bright and versatile accommodation with striking architectural features including a grand living space with a high glazed ceiling and mezzanine landing. Benefitting from private off-road parking, a low-maintenance rear garden, and being offered with no forward chain, this unique property must be viewed to fully appreciate the space and character on offer.

Situated on the quiet and highly sought-after Bath Lane in the historic market town of Spalding, South Lincolnshire, this spacious and characterful home offers a rare opportunity to acquire a truly unique property just a short stroll from the town centre and the picturesque River Welland, all within a charming conservation area, and is offered to the market with no forward chain for a smooth and straightforward purchase. Originally a restaurant and bar, the building was thoughtfully converted in the 1990s to create a bright and versatile residence full of individuality and generous proportions. The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hallway, which provides access to a convenient ground floor shower room and leads through to a well-appointed kitchen, sensibly arranged for everyday use while remaining connected to the rest of the home. From here, the property opens into an impressive lounge diner, a substantial and light-filled space that forms the heart of the house, enhanced by a striking high glazed ceiling that creates a wonderful sense of height and grandeur, while a spiralled staircase rises elegantly to a mezzanine-style landing area above, further adding to the home's unique architectural appeal and open feel. The layout offers excellent flexibility for both relaxing and entertaining, with the sense of space continuing throughout. The first floor landing provides access to all rooms, including a well-proportioned master bedroom and a second comfortable bedroom, both enjoying a pleasant outlook and ample natural light, along with a family bathroom conveniently positioned to serve both rooms. Externally, the property benefits from its own private driveway, providing off-road parking for approximately three vehicles, while the adjacent apartment building maintains its own separate allocated parking. To the rear, there is a patio-style garden offering a low-maintenance outdoor space ideal for seating and entertaining, although it should be noted that there are currently works being carried out to the neighbouring building, resulting in a temporary section being screened off while the boundary wall is repaired. The freehold of the building is shared between the owner of this property and the adjoining flats, with the current owner also acting as a Director of the management company, River Court Management LTD, and flexible options are available regarding the extension of the lease term should a prospective purchaser wish to explore this further. This is a home that truly needs to be seen to fully appreciate the scale, layout, and character on offer, and early viewing is strongly recommended.
