Positioned just a short distance from Cardiff University, the property benefits from strong, reliable rental demand year after year, making it an ideal addition to any investor’s portfolio. Cathays is widely recognized as the primary student district of Cardiff, with easy access to university buildings, local amenities, cafés, shops and excellent transport links into the city center.

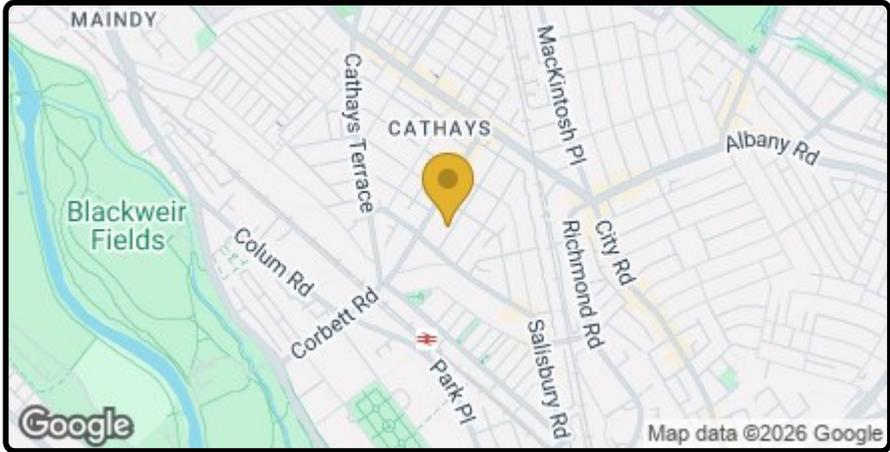

The property comprises nine well-proportioned bedrooms, generous communal living space and multiple bathroom facilities, providing a practical and attractive layout for student accommodation. The house has been configured specifically for the HMO market and offers a ready-made investment opportunity with strong rental performance.

Currently producing an attractive 10.56% net yield, the property offers investors immediate income with the benefit of owning a high-demand asset in a proven rental location. Properties of this size and yield within Cathays are rarely available, particularly in such a central position within the student district.
