Radcliffe & Rust Letting Agents are delighted to offer to the market this attractive one bedroom end terrace house in St Bedes Gardens. Having recently undergone extensive renovations including new carpets and full redecoration as well as a new kitchen and bathroom, this property offers modern living in a fantastic location.

Located on a corner plot, upon approaching the property you are welcomed by a great sized wraparound front garden with off road parking. Through the front door is the hallway where there is space to house shoes and coats and is also where the fuse box is located. The hallway leads in to the open plan living and dining room. This space has a large window overlooking the front of the property, stairs leading to the first floor and a curved opening offering views in to the kitchen. Although not full open plan, there is real sense of a sociable space on the ground floor thanks to the open doorways and opening between the living room and kitchen.

The kitchen is brand new and has just been installed. Consisting of white gloss wall and base units and a contrasting wooden coloured worktop, the kitchen also benefits from a freestanding oven with grill and four ring hob, overhead cooker hood, washing machine, under counter fridge and stainless steel sink and worktop. Within the kitchen, there is an additional open undercounter space which could be used for a stool to create a breakfast bar if required by the new tenant. The kitchen has a half glazed door leading to the rear garden.

On the first floor, the first room you come to is the bathroom. The bathroom has a bath with overhead shower, hand basin and W.C. with white tiles and a wooden style vinyl flooring. The bedroom is a great sized double which overlooks the front of the property with ample space for a bed and additional furniture and storage.

At the rear of the property is a good sized enclosed private rear garden. Within the garden there is a wooden shed and gate leading to the front of the property.
