

23 Park View, Marston Road, St Clements, OX4 1FN

A perfectly located 2 bedroom STUDENT property located between St Clements and Headington Hill providing quick and easy access to Oxford Brookes.

This modern, high spec apartment offers a high quality standard of living with under floor heating, and fully furnished throughout with stylish furniture. Both double bedrooms are large and have ample storage as well as both being light and bright to help make the room useful as a study area.

The kitchen/living area is perfect to relax in or to host guests and the bathroom is fresh and modern.

The property is very secure with coded access to both the communal door and to the garden at the rear of property. The garden offers plenty of book storage and a pleasant lawn area to use in the summer.

Cowley Road and the City centre are a short journey away and the bus to London is easily accessible.

There are only a small number of properties in this block so viewings are highly recommended.
