Price Guide £625,000

Silverman Black is delighted to offer this spacious and much extended four bedroom/two bathroom terraced house located on the ever popular Causeway Estate in central Carshalton. A popular Wates design, the house features a generously proportioned living room with a lovely refurbished parquet floor and a smaller open plan dining area on the ground floor with a modern part-integrated kitchen facility, whilst upstairs there are two double bedrooms, a good size single and a bathroom on the first floor, with a full loft extension over providing a sizable master bedroom with a Juliet balcony and a second shower facility. Other benefits include gas fired central heating to radiators, double glazing, fitted wardrobe and bedroom furniture is most of the bedrooms, modern kitchen appliances and both current Electrical Safety and Gas Safety Certification. Externally, the front garden has been block paved and provides off street parking for two vehicles, whilst the property also benefits from a garage facility at the back of the garden. The rear garden is about 60 ft long and features mature lawns with colourful flower beds and borders surrounding - perfect for kids, pets and outdoor entertaining. The property will be being sold vacant and with no onwads chain - so might suit someone looking to move fairly quickly. In terms of facilities, The Causeway affords realatively easy access to both Carshalton station and Hackbridge station - both of which afford fast easy access to Central London & The City in around 30 minutes.
