

21 Keeling Street, Newcastle, ST5 0DL

Offers in excess of £105,000

Situated in a convenient residential location close to local amenities, schools and transport links, this traditional mid-terrace home presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a property. Requiring modernisation throughout, 21 Keeling Street offers fantastic potential to create a comfortable family home or investment property.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hallway leading to a cosy lounge, separate dining room and a fitted kitchen to the rear with access to the garden. To the first floor there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, providing flexible living space for growing families, first-time buyers or landlords alike.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed rear yard/garden area with useful outbuilding/storage space.

Located in Newcastle-under-Lyme, the property is well placed for easy access to the town centre, nearby shops, supermarkets and commuter routes including the A34, A500 and M6 motorway network.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a superb renovation project with plenty of scope to add value.
