

281 Church Street, Bolton, BL5 3QQ £235,000

281 Church Street is a substantial semi-detached property occupying an established residential position on Church Street in the popular Westhoughton area of Bolton. The property offers well proportioned accommodation, a good sized plot and the potential to create a comfortable family home, subject to the exact configuration and condition of the accommodation.

The property is situated within a predominantly residential section of Church Street, where a mixture of traditional period houses and more modern residential properties creates an established and varied streetscape. The surrounding area benefits from a good range of local amenities, transport connections and everyday facilities, making the location attractive to homeowners, families and commuters alike.
