Situation

Dorchester town is rich in Roman heritage, with sites such as the Dorset County Museum and Maiden Castle offering glimpses into its past. It is also well known for its literary connections to Thomas Hardy and being set amongst picturesque rural countryside. Dorchester offers shopping and social facilities with cinemas, museums, leisure center and weekly market. There are many excellent restaurants, public houses and riverside walks. Doctor's, dentist's surgeries and the Dorset County Hospital are close by. Brewery Square is set within the heart of Dorchester and is a vibrant area offering further shopping and eating facilities with a central open space hosting several events throughout the year. There are train links to London Waterloo, Bristol Temple Meads, Weymouth and other coastal towns and villages, and there are regular bus routes to adjoining towns. The stunning surrounding countryside, and majestic Jurassic Coast, just a short drive away, make it a perfect balance of town and rural living.

Key Features

Entrance to this impressive building is gained via communal double doors, opening into a communal hallway with stairs and a lift leading to the second floor. The private front door to the apartment, opens into the entrance hall, which provides access to a storage useful cupboard.

The sitting/dining room features high ceilings and abundant natural light from two feature windows, creating a bright and airy atmosphere. A striking open staircase leads to the first-floor mezzanine. An archway opens into the modern, well-equipped kitchen, which boasts a range of wall and base units with work surfaces over and an inset stainless-steel sink with mixer tap and drainer. Integrated kitchen appliances include a Bosch electric double oven, a four-ring gas hob with extractor hood over, a Bosch washing machine and dishwasher, and a Bosch fridge/freezer.

Stairs rise to the mezzanine level, a standout feature of the home. This versatile space, which benefits from a skylight window with fitted electric blinds, is ideal as a snug, additional sitting area, dining space, or hobby room. The mezzanine also features two wall-mounted radiators and inset lighting. A bathroom is also located on the mezzanine level and is fitted with a suite comprising a low-level WC, pedestal wash hand basin, and a panel-enclosed bath with mixer tap and grab handles. The walls are partially tiled, and there is inset lighting, a wall-mounted radiator, extractor fan, vanity unit, and shaver point.

Bedroom two is situated on the mezzanine level and is a well-proportioned room featuring built-in double wardrobes. Finished in neutral tones with wall-mounted lighting and carpeting, the room enjoys plenty of natural light from a good-sized window. Bedroom one is located on the lower level and is also a double room with an airing cupboard housing the Vaillant gas central heating boiler. It benefits from en-suite facilities comprising a large walk-in shower, heated towel rail, WC, and wash hand basin with vanity storage beneath. The room is finished with partially tiled walls and splashback.
