Situation

Dorchester, the county town of Dorset, is a vibrant historic market town that blends rich heritage with modern amenities. Known for its Roman origins and literary links to Thomas Hardy, the town, and the fabulous Brewery Square, offers a wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and cultural attractions such as the Dorset Museum and the Keep Military Museum. Dorchester benefits from excellent travel links, with two railway stations providing direct services to London Waterloo, Bristol, and Weymouth, as well as good road connections via the A35 and A37. The surrounding areas include picturesque villages, rolling countryside, and the nearby Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site offering stunning coastal walks and beaches. Residents and visitors also enjoy access to leisure centres, schools, parks, and weekly markets, making Dorchester and its surroundings an attractive place to live and explore.

Description

The property is approached via a small gate leading to the front garden and patio area, providing a pleasant outdoor space. A side door opens into a useful porch, which can also be accessed from the rear of the property. From the porch, a main entrance door leads into the hallway, providing access to all principal rooms.

The spacious living room offers ample room for both comfortable seating and a dining area. A feature electric fireplace provides a focal point, while large windows overlook the front garden, allowing plenty of natural light into the room.

The kitchen is well equipped with a four-ring electric hob and extractor fan, built-in oven, sink and drainer, integral fridge freezer, and space for both a washing machine and tumble dryer.

The hallway benefits from two useful storage cupboards.

The main bedroom is a generous double bedroom with ample space for furnishings and benefits from a built-in wardrobe.

The second bedroom is also a good-sized double bedroom and includes a built-in wardrobe together with a small airing cupboard.

The property benefits from a shower room featuring a corner shower and wash basin, with a separate WC.

Externally, there is side access leading to a pathway at the rear of the property, which in turn provides access to the single garage, offering useful off-road parking and additional storage.
