Dorchester, the county town of Dorset, is a vibrant historic market town that blends rich heritage with modern amenities. Known for its Roman origins and literary links to Thomas Hardy, the town, and the fabulous Brewery Square, offers a wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants, and cultural attractions such as the Dorset Museum and the Keep Military Museum. Dorchester benefits from excellent travel links, with two railway stations providing direct services to London Waterloo, Bristol, and Weymouth, as well as good road connections via the A35 and A37. The surrounding areas include picturesque villages, rolling countryside, and the nearby Jurassic Coast, a UNESCO World Heritage Site offering stunning coastal walks and beaches. Residents and visitors also enjoy access to leisure centres, schools, parks, and weekly markets, making Dorchester and its surroundings an attractive place to live and explore.

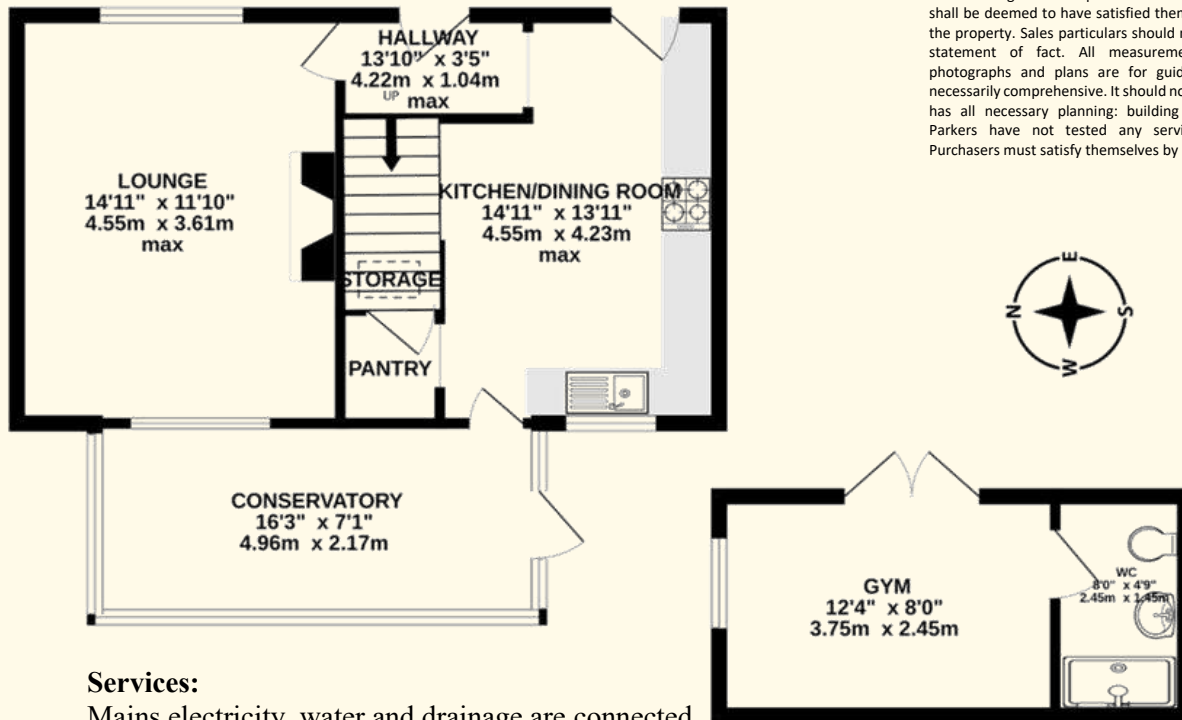

Approaching the property, a good-sized gravelled parking area sits adjacent to the front garden, where a well maintained and attractive frontage sets the tone for the home. Upon entering, a welcoming hallway guides you into a bright, dual-aspect lounge that spans the full depth of the property. This cozy room features a front-facing window and a striking wood-burning stove, creating an inviting focal point and space to relax. Sliding doors to the rear transition smoothly into a substantial conservatory that floods the ground floor with natural light and looks out over the garden. From here, a door provides direct access outside. A well-equipped kitchen and breakfast room is fitted with a range of wall and base level units with attractive wood effect work surface over, housing integrated appliances including a four-ring gas hob, electric oven with extractor hood over, a stainless-steel sink with mixer tap and dedicated spaces for appliances.

Ascending to the first floor, the accommodation continues with two generous double bedrooms. The principal bedroom is an expansive, dual-aspect retreat benefiting from integrated airing cupboard storage, while the second bedroom features a front-facing viewpoint. Serving the bedrooms is the family shower room, thoughtfully modernised with a wash hand basin with built-in storage, low-level W/C, a heated towel rail, and contemporary splashback panelling.

The outdoor spaces are a standout feature. The low-maintenance, east-facing rear garden showcases a neat lawn and secure gated pathway at the far end. Wooden decking and low-upkeep artificial grass and a permanent metal gazebo enhance the space. Steps lead safely from the garden up to a versatile garage conversion, which provides a flexible space perfectly suited as a home gym, studio, or workshop. A rear gate gives direct access to a quiet public footpath, adding an extra layer of convenience alongside the property's dedicated parking area.
