15 Queens Drive West

, Peterborough, PE1 2UU

£1,300 Per Month

The property is currently undergoing a full refurbishment, including a brand-new kitchen, redecoration and general improvements throughout, creating a fresh and welcoming home while retaining its original charm.

Situated on Queens Drive West, Peterborough, this charming and highly individual property offers a fantastic opportunity in an exceptionally convenient location. This property features 3 dedicated bedrooms, 1 multipurpose room that can be used as a bedroom or home office, and 2 living/dining rooms.

The home is positioned right next to Central Park, close to Thomas Deacon Academy, within walking distance of The King's School, and with a primary school and nursery directly opposite - making it an ideal setting for families.

A standout feature of the property is its unique character, including custom tiling and decorative details created over approximately 30 years. The rear garden is especially distinctive, with colourful bespoke tiled and mosaic-style finishes that give the space real personality.

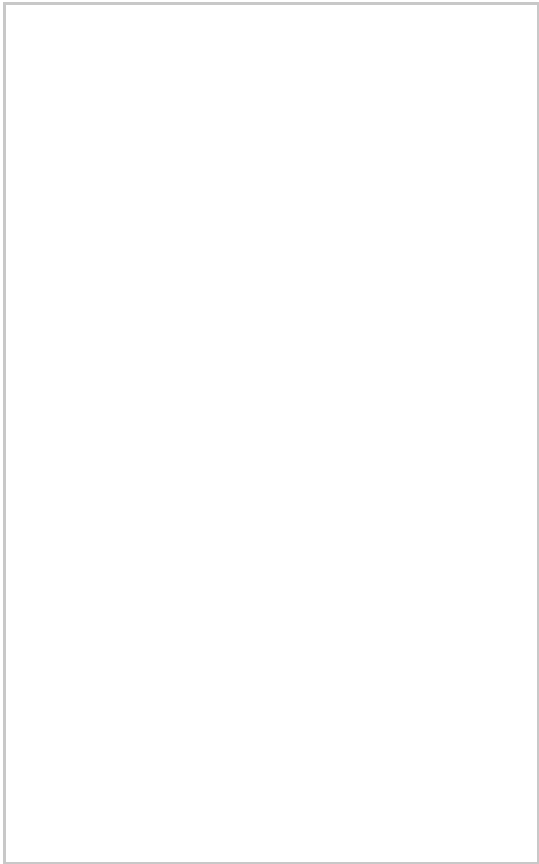

With excellent schools, green space and local amenities all close by, this is a rare opportunity to rent a truly unique property in a superb Peterborough location.
