Derwent House is an elegant five storey 19th century (CIRCA 1852) townhouse which has endured a meticulous scheme of renovation throughout. The property is now arranged into five luxury self-catering apartments ultimately named after remarkable, local beauty spots within the North York Moors National Park and along the River Derwent (Everley, Harwood, Broxa, Langdale, Ganton). No expense has been spared on said renovation from high quality fixtures and fittings throughout (available via separate negotiations) to a lift facility within the block which provides access to all floors.

Everley is an imposing three bedroom apartment totalling approx 114 square meters and is situated on the basement level of Derwent House. The internal living accommodation comprises in brief; entrance lobby, a modern open plan living/kitchen/dining room with a generously equipped kitchen including centre island and a bay window to the front aspect, inner hallway, a king double bedroom with an en-suite, two double bedrooms (one with an en-suite) and a modern bathroom. This apartment does also come with a private yard space.

The townhouse is accessed via a secure entry intercom and is complete with high ceilings, underfloor heating, traditional Victorian tiled flooring within the communal hallway, stairs to all floors and a lift facility providing easy access to all floors.

Derwent House apartments are currently utilised as luxury holiday lets and are all currently generating a great income. The prices per night depend on a variety of factors (minimum £214 per night) with the highest direct rate this summer being £360 per night (July/August 2022). The apartments have proved so popular that they are receiving bookings for longer durations of time. One being a 5 month stay at CIRCA £9,000 pcm (£279 per night) and another flexible booking at £7,000 pro rata. Derwent House apartments are featured on a variety of websites, a select few being their direct website www.derwenthouseapartments.co.uk and Booking.com which a magnificent rating of 10/10 'Exceptional'. The impressive accommodation has also gained a variety of media attention with The Scottish Sun, Cumbria Times/Yorkshire Post, Crave Magazine (to again name a few) speaking highly of the apartments. News articles can be available to read upon request. Should a passive investor wish to add these fantastic apartment (s) to their portfolio, the current vendors would be happy (and well suited) to do so.

Derwent House is ideally located on Esplanade Gardens just off Scarborough's renowned Esplanade. This property is situated amongst a wealth of amenities and attractions including (but certainly not limited to) Ramshill Shopping Parade where a variety of local shops and eateries are located, Scarborough's South Bay Beach and Scarborough Castle, Italian Gardens, scenic walks over 'Valley Bridge' to Scarborough Town Centre and beyond.
