This delightful detached coastal bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. With its well-proportioned rooms, having up to 4 bedrooms or a great home office leading to the rear south facing garden, this property is ideally suited for both family living and retirement. The bungalow features a lovely rear conservatory, which invites natural light and offers a space to unwind while enjoying views of the private gardens. The gardens are not only easy to maintain but also provide an attractive outdoor retreat, perfect for those who appreciate a bit of greenery without the burden of extensive upkeep. Equipped with a wood burner, oil-fired central heating and uPVC double glazing, this home ensures warmth and energy efficiency throughout the year.

Its proximity to the sea and the All Wales Coastal Path make it an ideal location for those who enjoy coastal walks and the beauty of nature. The property is also conveniently located near the village centre, where you will find a local garage/convenience store, post office, a welcoming pub and the Penrhos Park complex providing hotel, restaurant, a championship golf course, swimming pool/spa and gym. There is also a regular bus service connecting the village in a northerly direction to Aberystwyth plus in a southerly direction to Aberaeron and other major towns/villages.

Location

Nestled along the stunning Ceredigion coastline, Llanrhystud offers an enviable seaside lifestyle where the rhythm of the waves is never far away. This charming coastal village enjoys proximity to a wide, unspoilt pebble beach, perfect for morning walks, sunset views and year-round enjoyment of the fresh sea air.

Llanrhystud combines its idyllic setting with everyday convenience, offering local amenities including garage/convenience store, post office, a welcoming pub and the Penrhos Park complex providing hotel, restaurant, a championship golf course, swimming pool/spa and gym. There is also a regular bus service connecting the village in a northerly direction to Aberystwyth plus in a southerly direction to Aberaeron and other major towns/villages.

Description

This detached bungalow is deceptively spacious and offers well-proportioned accommodation, superbly presented and ready for immediate occupation, perfectly suited to a range of buyers. The property has the benefit of oil fired central heating and uPVC double glazing and provides a welcoming living space, complete with a charming wood burner, creating a cosy focal point, alongside generous room sizes that provide both comfort and versatility. A fourth bedroom is currently utilised as a home office, with a door to the rear garden, and benefits from its own en-suite cloakroom; ideal for remote working or guest use. Externally, the property enjoys very private, easy-to-maintain gardens, offering a peaceful outdoor retreat, while a detached garage provides additional storage/workshop space or parking.
