Gwynfryn Pennant, Llanon, Ceredigion, SY23 5JW

Asking Price £375,000

A charming and beautifully improved country cottage, offering characterful yet energy-efficient accommodation in a popular village setting. This attractive home features 4 well-proportioned bedrooms, a stylish modern kitchen, contemporary bathrooms, and a wealth of charming period features throughout. The property has been thoughtfully upgraded with an air source heating system, solar panels, upgraded insulation, and uPVC double glazing, providing excellent energy efficiency. A particular feature of the property is the versatile studio annexe, ideal for multi-generational living, guest accommodation, or home office with further potential to adapt the layout to suit individual requirements. Externally, the property enjoys delightful cottage-style gardens together with a range of useful workshops and outbuildings with private parking for several cars.

Conveniently situated within easy reach of the picturesque harbour town of Aberaeron and the university town of Aberystwyth, this delightful cottage offers the perfect combination of rural charm, modern convenience, and flexible family living.

Location

Nestled within the attractive rural hamlet of Pennant in the heart of Ceredigion, the property enjoys a peaceful countryside setting whilst remaining conveniently positioned between the vibrant coastal university town of Aberystwyth, and the highly regarded Georgian harbour town of Aberaeron. Aberystwyth offers a wide range of employment opportunities centred around the university, hospital, public sector and growing technology and service industries, together with an excellent selection of shops, schools and leisure facilities. Aberaeron, renowned for its picturesque harbour, colourful architecture and popular restaurants and cafés, provides an appealing coastal lifestyle and thriving local community. The area as a whole is celebrated for its outstanding natural beauty, with easy access to the spectacular Ceredigion coastline, sandy beaches and coastal path, whilst also being surrounded by rolling countryside, open farmland and scenic walking routes, making it an ideal location for those seeking a balance between coast and country living.

Description

An attractive cottage style property, offering characterful accommodation having recently been subject to energy efficiency improvement work including the installation of an air source heating system and solar panels, and having been insulated to provide an impressive EPC rating of 88 (B). The property also benefits from uPVC double glazing with traditional sash windows to the front elevation, having bespoke fitted shutters adding to the character of this property. The property provides adaptable accommodation which can either be used as a main cottage with the benefit of a studio annexe, either for incorporation into the main accommodation or as a self-contained living area for multi-generational living use, home office / studio etc.

One of the main features of this property is the attractive location in a popular village setting while having the benefit of attractive cottage style gardens. A notable feature of this property is the useful outbuildings which provide the potential to be converted further to enlarge the accommodation, or are ideal for car enthusiasts or those seeking extra space for hobbies etc.
