Land at Gellie Synod Inn, Llandysul, SA44 6BG

Guide Price £385,000

An inherently productive parcel of some 42.66 acres of land, in a noted early growing agricultural locality, only some 3 miles in land from the coast, having excellent roadside frontage on to both the A487 coast road and the Plwmp to Post Bach road.

This land is accessible to a large surrounding area and ideal to be attached to a larger holding for growing crops, silage/hay making or grazing.

Divided into 8 fields being level to very gently sloping, well fenced with mains water.

Location

The land is located in a noted early growing locality influenced by its coastal location only 3 miles inland from the coast. The land has excellent access off both the A487 roadway and the Plwmp to Post Bach side road, making it accessible to a large surrounding area.

Being only some 1.5 miles south of Synod Inn, some 5 miles from New Quay, and approx 13 miles north of Cardigan this parcel of land would be accessible to a wide area making it suitable for growing of crops for a larger farming unit or indeed for over wintering of sheep.

Description

A parcel of productive pasture land divided onto 8 good sized fields with hedged boundaries all relatively well fenced, with internal hard based tracks for ease of management. The land is level to gently sloping rising from approx. 200 m to approx. 240 m above sea level in this noted agricultural locality. The land would be suitable as a stand alone parcel of land or a valuable addition to a larger agricultural unit for growing of crops, applying slurry or grazing of animals taking into account its proximity to a good road network.
