Brynseir Lledrod, Lledrod, Aberystwyth, Ceredigion, SY23 4SH

Asking Price £640,000

* Equestrian smallholding with 18 acres of pasture paddocks, menage and extensive stabling ****

An exceedingly rare opportunity to acquire, in our opinion, one of Mid Wales' most secluded and appealing country/equestrian properties. Combining a characterful 4 bedroomed country cottage, extensive stabling, a menage, productive gardens and approximately 18 acres, together with direct access to countless miles of forestry outriding, the property offers an enviable lifestyle opportunity that will undoubtedly appeal to discerning country property and equestrian buyers seeking peace, privacy and freedom.

Location

The property's greatest attraction is undoubtedly its unrivalled access to forestry riding. Miles upon miles of tracks and bridleways extend directly from the property, offering superb hacking without the need to use roads, making this a dream acquisition for endurance riders, leisure riders and those seeking a true equestrian lifestyle.

Despite its wonderfully secluded setting, the property remains conveniently accessible and lies close to the village of Lledrod, with the university and coastal town of Aberystwyth approximately 11 miles distant, providing an excellent range of shopping, educational and recreational amenities.

The property is intersected by a bridlepath adding to the appeal for equestrian buyers.

Description

Occupying an enviably private position hidden deep within a vast commercial forest plantation, this exceptional country property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a genuine equestrian haven. Surrounded by miles of forestry tracks and unspoilt countryside, the property offers an unparalleled degree of peace, privacy and direct access to some of the finest outriding available in Mid Wales. Approached via private tracks and enjoying complete seclusion, the property stands within approximately 18 acres of pasture, gardens and grounds, perfectly arranged for private equestrian use or a small-scale livery enterprise. The setting is truly unique; with no immediate neighbours and thousands of acres of surrounding forestry creating a spectacular backdrop for riders seeking endless hacking and adventure straight from the yard. At the heart of the holding lies a charming and characterful 4 bedroom country cottage combining traditional features with comfortable family accommodation. Exposed beams, a feature wood-burning stove and generous living spaces create a warm and welcoming atmosphere, while large windows and conservatories provide delightful views across the surrounding countryside.

The accommodation briefly comprises:

- Entrance boot room and utility area with direct access to the yard.
- Spacious open-plan kitchen, dining and living room with exposed beams and feature log burner.
- Two conservatories overlooking the gardens and surrounding countryside.
- Four first-floor bedrooms.
- Family bathroom.

Equestrian Facilities

Exceptional Equestrian Facilities designed with the serious horse enthusiast in mind. The extensive range of equestrian facilities includes:

Directions

From Aberystwyth, proceed south on the A487 to Llanfarian, turning left onto the A485, signposted Tregaron. Continue on this road passing through Llanilar and turn right onto Rhos Y Garth. After about 1 mile, turn left at the crossroads signposted for Trawscoed. Follow this single track lane for approximately 1 mile then turn sharp right into the forestry opening and over the cattle grid. Keep to the main track uphill through three hair-pin bends for approximately 1.8 miles and Brynseir can be found on the right hand side.
