DESCRIPTION

This attractive period home offers generous proportions throughout, with a flexible and practical layout that will suit a range of buyers including families, downsizers and those seeking adaptable living space.

A key feature of the property is the dual staircase arrangement, which provides independent access to the first-floor bathroom via a secondary staircase. This means the bathroom can be accessed without passing through a bedroom, offering a rare level of flexibility for a property of this style.

Externally, the property enjoys a private enclosed garden and also offers excellent potential to create off-road parking to the front (subject to consents). The substantial stone frontage is within ownership of the property, and neighbouring homes have successfully implemented similar arrangements, to allow for this, as indeed also have with further living space into the extremely large loft areas providing even more flexibility.

Situated in a quieter residential section of Bridge Street, the property combines peace and privacy with excellent convenience, yet just a short level walk from the Co-op, bus routes, schools and town centre amenities.
