A gorgeous, two double bedroom, ground floor Edwardian maisonette overlooking Moor Mead Park, and just a short walk to the village or to Twickenham station. Presented in excellent decorative order throughout with a beautiful sitting room boasting views of the park and a stunning period fireplace. With an eat-in kitchen, this offers the perfect opportunity to catch up over dinner, also ideal for families and entertaining. Having double doors leading onto a beautiful private garden really making this property top of the list.
