Located in the iconic 'Barons', this larger than average one bedroom raised ground floor Victorian conversion is ideally located for St Margarets Villages local amenities and mainline station to London Waterloo.

The apartment boasts an extremely large reception with extremely high ceilings and feature fireplace, an open kitchen area featuring an island and access to a balcony. The large bedroom benefits from a large bay window and walk-in wardrobe with the added benefit of a useable raised mezzanine area. The family bathroom completes the generously proportioned accommodation.

The residence offers full vacant possession, a share of the freehold, a long lease and low service charges. An appointment to view is highly recommended via the vendors agents Chase Buchanan at the earliest opportunity.
