This beautifully designed end of terrace home offers exceptional family living with high-end specifications and impeccable presentation.

On the ground floor, the property features an open-plan kitchen adorned with stylish exposed brickwork and RSJ beams. This spacious area is perfect for both entertaining and dining, with bi-folding doors that lead to a well-maintained, landscaped garden. Additional benefits include a utility room, a WC, and a light-filled reception room with elegant wood flooring.

The first floor comprises three well-appointed bedrooms and a lovely family bathroom designed with comfort in mind. The upper floor houses a luxurious master bedroom with full-sized windows that flood the room with natural light, ample storage, and an en-suite bathroom. There is also a separate room on this floor that is perfect for use as a study or nursery.

The property includes a garage, conveniently accessible from St. Paul's Road. Situated in a highly desirable area, this period house is within walking distance to Richmond town centre and Kew Gardens. Richmond Station, offering District Line, Overground Line, and Mainline services to Waterloo, is also nearby, ensuring excellent connectivity. This stunning home combines elegant design with practical living spaces, making it ideal for families seeking comfort and convenience.
