ACCOMMODATION

Set within an attractive Regency building on Willes Road, this beautifully presented one-bedroom apartment combines the elegance and character of its period setting with a fresh, contemporary interior.

Occupying the upper floor, the apartment has a wonderfully light and inviting feel, with large windows, sloping ceilings and carefully considered lighting throughout. A soft, neutral palette, complemented by muted sage tones and natural-effect flooring, creates a calm and stylish backdrop that is ready to move straight into.

At the heart of the property is the living and dining room, providing space for relaxing and entertaining. The separate fitted kitchen is bright and modern, with crisp cabinetry, integrated cooking appliances and subtle touches of colour adding warmth and personality.

The generous double bedroom continues the understated decorative scheme, while the smart contemporary shower room features a glazed shower enclosure, modern vanity unit and heated towel rail.

One of the apartment's particularly useful features is the hall and study area, creating a natural space for a desk and making the property well suited to home working. There is also an excellent amount of eaves storage, cleverly making use of the apartment's top-floor proportions.

Outside, the property benefits from parking, an especially valuable addition in this sought-after Leamington Spa setting. Willes Road is ideally positioned for enjoying the town, with its shops, cafés, restaurants, parks and everyday amenities all within convenient reach.

Full of light, character and thoughtful contemporary touches, this is a beautifully presented apartment that successfully balances the charm of a Regency building with stylish, easy modern living.
