

LONG SUTTON

Set in an idyllic semi-rural location, this 2-bedroom bungalow could be the perfect compromise between being rural and isolated or in a bustling town. With farmland views to the front and rear, but the benefit of being part of small, friendly community just 7 miles from the town of King's Lynn, it really could be your dream hideaway.

Boasting a double-aspect living room with a multi-fuel burning stove, a contemporary kitchen with a separate utility room and walk-in pantry, as well as a garden room from which you can enjoy garden views no matter what the season: all conveniences are catered for. The king-size master bedroom and second double bedroom are served by a family shower room.

Prepare to be wowed by what the property offers externally! To the front of the property, a wide opening in the boundary picket fence provides access to the gravelled driveway which has off-road parking space for multiple vehicles. This could include a caravan/motorhome, with two hook-up points installed. Vehicular access to the gravelled can be opened to an additional area of hardstanding and further to the double garage and rear garden.

At the rear, an expanse of patio spans from the garden room, providing an ideal base for outdoor furniture from which you can enjoy views of the garden. The patio extends all the way to the open-fronted cabin, which with power, lighting and a heater, could be a wonderful entertaining area, or perhaps a covered area for a hot tub for those who prefer relaxation. The lawned area of the garden is bordered by established but cared-for beds of shrubs and bushes. To the side of the garage, raised beds constructed from railway sleepers are positioned on a concrete base, leading to a further area of patio with a wooden pergola, from which the wooden storage shed, aluminium-framed greenhouse and wooden-framed greenhouse can be accessed: a delight for gardening enthusiasts. Beyond the garden are farmland views over which you can enjoy spectacular sunsets views.

Outside

To the front of the property, a wide opening in the boundary picket fence provides access to the gravelled driveway which has off-road parking space for multiple vehicles. A concrete path leads to the covered entrance to the front door, where there is the benefit of outside lights. To the right of the bungalow, a pedestrian gate provides access to an area where the oil tank is housed, with further pedestrian access to the rear garden. To the left of the bungalow, vehicular access gates can be opened to an additional area of hardstanding and further to the garage and rear garden. The front of the property benefits from two caravan/motorhome hook-up points.

To the rear of the property, an expanse of patio spans from the garden room, providing an ideal base for outdoor tables/chairs/loungers from which you can enjoy views of the garden. The patio extends all the way to the open-fronted cabin. The cabin (measuring approximately 5.44m x 2.95m) with its power, lighting and a heater, could be a wonderful entertaining area, or perhaps as a covered area for a hot tub for those who prefer relaxation. The lawned area of the garden is bordered by established but cared-for beds of shrubs and bushes. To the side of the garage, raised beds constructed from railway sleepers are positioned on a concrete base, leading to a further area of patio with a wooden pergola, from which the wooden storage shed, aluminium-framed greenhouse and wooden-framed greenhouse can be accessed: a delight for gardening enthusiasts. Beyond the garden are farmland views over which you can enjoy spectacular sunsets. The garden benefits from outside lighting and an outside tap.
