Summary

Westview House occupies a wonderful position on Western Road set in manicured grounds of 0.75 acres.

It sits directly opposite a path connecting to Branksome Chine Woods where there is a pretty woodland walk leading to the beach at Branksome Chine which is little over 0.5 miles away. As the name implies the garden faces West with rolling lawns and a sunny aspect. There is a private patio which the owners often use for outdoor entertaining. The entirety of the dwelling extends to just over 4,600 square feet including a detached garage for up to three cars with a separate studio above which could be suitable for a number of uses.

The main dwelling comprises five bedrooms with four bathrooms including the principal bedroom with a walk in closet as well as a sumptuous en suite bathroom. There is also a simply beautiful galleried reception hall which connects to three main receptions plus a home office. A highlight of the property is the contemporary kitchen / diner which opens to the rear garden. It also connects to the family room via double doors. This is a great home and it could suite a variety of owners given its proximity to local beaches and Canford Cliffs Village.
