Keith Ian are delighted to offer this rarely available three bedroom detached family home built c.1905. Offering two large reception rooms, a big entrance porch, welcoming hallway and bathroom to the ground floor. Upstairs comprises two double bedrooms, a single bedroom plus a cleverly hidden shower on the landing. The private wrap around side and front garden offers a lawn plus a patio providing a seating area. There is planning permission in place to extend the property on both sides which can be found on Broxbourne Council's website. The property is located just a short distance from Rye House Station with its links into London Liverpool Street, local amenities on Rye Road and under a mile from Hoddesdon High Street.

Whilst every attempt has been made to ensure the accuracy of the floor plan contained here, measurements of doors, windows, rooms and any other items are approximate and no responsibility is taken for any error, omission, or mis-statement. This plan is for illustrative purposes only and should be used as such by any prospective purchaser. The services, systems and appliances shown have not been tested and no guarantee as to their operability or efficiency can be given

These particulars are believed to be correct but their accuracy is not guaranteed and they do not form part of any contract. Whilst every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of these details, it should be noted that the above measurements are approximate only. Any internal photographs are intended as a guide only and it should not be assumed that any of the furniture/fittings are included in any sale. Where shown, details of lease, ground rent and service charge are provided by the vendor and their accuracy cannot be guaranteed, as the information may not have been verified and further checks should be made either through your solicitor. Where appliances, including central heating, are mentioned, it cannot be assumed that they are in working order, as they have not been tested. Please also note that wiring, plumbing and drains have not been checked.
