

2A, Broomfield Close, Stone, ST15 0DF

Asking Price £287,500

An excellent value for money detached 4 bedroom house on The Cherryfields, a popular and sought after residential suburb about 10 minutes walk from Stone town centre. The house offers well proportioned accommodation featuring two reception rooms, traditional style kitchen and downstairs WC, complemented on the first floor by four bedrooms and modern shower room. Step outside and you will find a larger than average garden plot with plenty of space for outdoor living and enjoys a good degree of privacy from neighbouring houses. The house is generally well maintained and benefits from gas central heating and upvc double glazed windows, but does now offer the chance for future owners to make their own mark. Great location on the 'town side' of the A34, walking distance to several local schools, Aldi supermarket, Stone Leisure Centre and the town. Offered for sale with no upward chain.
