Around

If you revel in the quirky, interesting & unusual then this traditional Victorian terrace will definitely float your boat. The house is on the corner of Alma Street and Tunley Street and offers far more than your average terrace, featuring good size, slightly unusually shape accommodation with entrance hall, two reception rooms, kitchen, three bedrooms and upstairs bathroom. The house is in good order and well presented throughout but does still offer new owners the opportunity to stamp their own mark. Step outside and you will discover an interesting garden arrangement with a sunny enclosed courtyard immediately to the rear and adjacent walled garden which fronts Alma Street. Very convenient location within walking distance of the town centre, railway station and a host of amenities. Offered for sale with no upward chain.
