

1, George Lane, Aston Lodge Park, Stone, ST15 8SA

Asking Price £650,000

Cast your eagle eye over this capacious family home and you cannot fail to be impressed with the space on offer. This is a fabulous family home with gardens to match and is a rare opportunity to acquire one of the biggest house types on this popular and sought after residential suburb on the southern outskirts of Stone. The accommodation is exceptionally spacious featuring a welcoming entrance hall, sitting room with inglenook fireplace and wood burning stove, large open dining kitchen and P-shape conservatory with French doors from both the lounge and kitchen. In addition the current owners have converted the former garage into an uber-stylish family room / den. Upstairs you will find a huge master bedroom with dressing area and full en-suite bathroom, three further double bedrooms, a large single bedroom and luxurious family bathroom. Step beyond the threshold and discover a large mature garden which is and very private and enjoys a sunny west facing aspect with sun through into the late evening, plenty of space for outdoor living and a secluded side garden with space for a trampoline or garden shed - out of sight but easily accessible. This area could also potentially accommodate a campervan or caravan subject to alteration of the access. A fabulous house in the best of locations, viewing essential.
