Kelso, TD5 7DZ

Bellevue House is an impressive Victorian villa set in a prime position on Bowmont Street in the heart of Kelso. Rich in period character, the property offers generous accommodation with the flexibility for a fine family home or continued guest house use.

BELLEVUE HOUSE

Bellevue House is an impressive Victorian villa dating from 1840, offering substantial and versatile accommodation within a well-established residential area of Kelso. The property has been carefully maintained and enjoyed by the current owners, with many original architectural features retained and complemented by thoughtful improvements that respect the character of the house.

The original villa displays much of its period charm, with generous proportions and refined detailing typical of the era. The principal rooms include a comfortable lounge, formal dining room and study, providing excellent flexibility for family living, entertaining or guest use. A well-appointed kitchen, supported by a practical utility room, ensures the house meets the demands of modern living.

The accommodation extends to six bedrooms, each with its own en-suite, making the property particularly well suited to continued use as a guest house or for a large family seeking space and privacy. The owner's accommodation is thoughtfully arranged and centres around a spacious principal bedroom, complete with a walk-in wardrobe and a well-appointed en-suite bathroom, providing a private retreat separate from guest areas.

To the rear of the original villa, a gorgeous garden room extension forms a notable addition to the property. Designed to sit comfortably alongside the period architecture, this light-filled space enjoys views over the garden and offers exceptional versatility. With its own independent access to the rear of the house, the garden room has clear potential to operate as a separate annexe, whether for owner occupation, extended family, or as a self-contained guest suite, while remaining easily connected to the main house if desired.

Bellevue House is set within mature and well-maintained grounds, with attractive gardens providing a peaceful and private setting for outdoor relaxation and entertaining. The property also benefits from a biomass pellet boiler, offering an efficient and environmentally conscious heating solution.

Equally suitable as a substantial family home or for continued operation as a guest house, Bellevue House offers a rare combination of period character, generous accommodation and adaptable living in one of the Scottish Borders' most attractive and desirable towns.
