Stunning four-bedroom detached cottage in Smailholm, beautifully renovated with panoramic views, stylish open-plan living, and exceptional outdoor spaces.

SUMMARY

Westfield Cottage is a truly stunning four-bedroom detached home, carefully and thoughtfully renovated to the highest of standards, creating a beautiful blend of modern comfort and countryside charm. Set within an idyllic location and enjoying breathtaking views across the surrounding fields, this exceptional property offers both privacy and character.

A gated entrance leads onto a private driveway, setting the tone for the sense of seclusion and quality throughout. Inside, the spacious lounge features floor-to-ceiling windows designed to capture the landscape, while the brand-new open-plan kitchen provides a wonderful space for both everyday living and entertaining. The home is finished throughout with solid oak doors, adding warmth and quality at every turn. The versatile fourth bedroom, positioned just off the lounge and served by its own shower room, lends itself perfectly as a guest suite or dedicated home office. Outside, the property continues to impress with a detached garage, a fully powered garden pod ideal as a studio or office, and a former stable block now converted into a highly practical outbuilding. The surrounding gardens create a serene setting, and with the addition of solar panels, Westfield Cottage also benefits from improved energy efficiency—making this a rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully finished home in a truly picturesque location.

LOCATION

The position of Smailholm truly offers the best of both worlds; central to the rest of The Scottish Borders but also within a short drive of the rail line at Tweedbank which makes this property ideally suited for those that commute daily to Edinburgh. Equally, the main East Coast rail line at Berwick Upon Tweed gives easy connections to London.

Smailholm is an attractive and historic village located around five miles from Kelso and also within easy driving distance of Melrose and Galashiels. The area is famed for its natural beauty and is popular with tourists; the historic 15th century 'Smailholm Tower' is located close by which is a prominent landmark in the area which proved inspirational to Sir Walter Scott.
