

34 Magdala Terrace
Galashiels, TD1 2HS

An ideal family home offering flexible accommodation and generously proportioned rooms throughout. Perfect for modern living, the layout easily adapts to home working, entertaining, or growing family needs. The low-maintenance gardens provide a private outdoor space to relax or host with ease, making this a practical and welcoming home for busy households.

A striking stone built semi-detached property in the heart of Galashiels, offering generous and flexible accommodation across three spacious floors; with the option to have three well-appointed bedrooms and a single. To the front sits a large kitchen with plenty of wall and base units and space for dining table and chairs; and a bright and welcoming living room which captures wonderful views over the town and beyond, this is ideal for families with plenty of space for modern living. There is a useful utility area, with a neighbouring snug, which could be used as your fourth bedroom if required.

34 Magdala Terrace, available with no onward chain, is complemented by low-maintenance gardens to both front and rear, providing a perfect canvas for gardening enthusiasts with ample space for colourful pots and plants, and a dedicated vegetable garden, with a shed and greenhouse complete with patio to enjoy the sunshine. There is also scope to create off street parking to the rear, if desired - subject to relevant permissions.

LOCATION

The vibrant town of Galashiels is centrally located within the Scottish Borders; benefitting an excellent range of amenities, shops, transport facilities and schools. A selection of independent retailers thrive, with the Heartland Artisans Market a monthly highlight, and with larger superstores and national chains also available at the Gala Water retail park.

Schooling from nursery to secondary level are all easily accessible, with private schooling at nearby St Mary's in Melrose. The town hosts the well reputed textile college Heriot Watt, as well as a Borders College Campus.

The property benefits from easy access to Edinburgh via the A7, and lies within easy distance of the Borders rail connection with the opening of the Waverley Line station and Interchange a short stroll. The town has good road and bus connections to all central Borders towns and is within easy travelling distance to major employers at Scottish Borders Council and the Borders General Hospital.
