Situated within a popular residential area, this attractive home has undergone recent modernisation, offering contemporary interiors, well-proportioned accommodation and an excellent sense of flow between the principal rooms. Enjoying a pleasant outlook from its gently elevated position, the property further benefits from a generous private rear garden, an appealing lawned frontage and convenient side access, with previous planning granted for extension.

SUMMARY

A glazed entrance porch provides a welcoming introduction, leading into the entrance hall and through to a bright living room. Enjoying a dual aspect, this comfortable reception space features a wood-burning stove and ample room for both seating and dining furnishings. Adjoining is a modern fitted kitchen, offering a good selection of wall and base units, with a door leading through to a useful separate utility and storage room. On the first floor are two particularly spacious bedrooms, complemented by a family bathroom.

Externally, the property is set back behind a generous front lawn with neat paved edging, whilst to the rear is a substantial private garden, offering excellent space for outdoor entertaining, family enjoyment and gardening. Convenient side access further enhances the practicality of the outside space.

Adding to the appeal is the property's exciting potential for future enlargement, having previously benefited from planning permission for a two-storey extension (subject to confirmation of the relevant planning consent). This provides an excellent opportunity for purchasers to create a larger and particularly appealing family home, tailored to their own requirements.

LOCATION

Convenient for amenities and leisure facilities, Earlston is a popular area for families, working professionals and retirees alike. Benefitting excellent educational and recreational services Earlston is a vibrant community with beautiful countryside on the doorstep.
