ACCOMMODATION

Enjoying stunning open views towards the River Tweed, this well-presented property offers spacious and versatile accommodation in a highly desirable setting. An entrance vestibule leads into a welcoming entrance hall/dining room, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen is well-appointed, featuring an Aga, separate oven and hob, dishwasher, and a fixed dining table within the dining area. A useful utility room with WC and shelved pantry adds further practicality. A bright sun room/office lies off the utility room. The generous lounge boasts a feature fireplace and impressive wall-to-wall windows, flooding the space with natural light and making the most of the spectacular views. The property benefits from a well-equipped bathroom comprising bath, separate shower, WC, and wash hand basin. There are three double bedrooms, including a front-facing bedroom with built-in wardrobes, and two further rear-facing double bedrooms with free standing wardrobes, one of which also benefits a built in wash hand basin.

EXTERNAL

Externally, the property is set within large, well-maintained gardens that wrap around the house. A double garage, complete with light and power, provides excellent storage, with direct access to the utility room. There is also an integrated outhouse offering additional storage, along with a further integrated store housing the oil tank. Greenhouse. Ample off street parking.

Please note the tenants will be responsible for grass cutting and general weeding in the garden. A gardener will visit the property four times a year to maintain and prune trees, shrubs and rose bushes.
