ACCOMMODATION

Cloich is a beautifully presented three-bedroom detached bungalow, perfectly positioned in the highly desirable Scottish Borders village of Swinton. Immaculately maintained and thoughtfully designed, this spacious family home blends comfort, functionality, and style. On arrival, a welcoming entrance vestibule with an internal window offers a glimpse into the impressive living spaces beyond.

The generous living room immediately sets the tone, with its warm and inviting atmosphere, carefully designed to maximise space and natural light. Large sliding doors frame uninterrupted views across the garden towards the picturesque Cheviot Hills, creating a striking focal point. An arched opening leads into the stunning open-plan dining kitchen—a bright and airy space with vaulted ceilings, ideal for both family life and entertaining. The shaker-style kitchen exudes country charm, with sage-green units paired beautifully with oak-effect worktops.

A range cooker completes the space, perfectly suited for gatherings with family and friends. From here, the room flows seamlessly into a delightful sunroom, where expansive windows and patio doors provide a picture-perfect outlook over the surrounding gardens. A practical utility room, offering additional built-in storage and direct access to the front of the property, enhances everyday convenience. The master bedroom is a peaceful retreat, featuring vaulted ceilings, full-height glass doors with garden views, and a private en suite shower room. Two further double bedrooms, both with fitted wardrobes, are complemented by a stylish family bathroom.

Externally, Cloich boasts private parking, a garden shed, and extensive enclosed gardens, beautifully landscaped and filled with colour. A recent addition—the outdoor kitchen area—creates the perfect setting for summer barbecues in the south-facing garden. Tucked away in a quiet location, this exceptional home offers tranquillity and seclusion, while remaining just a short distance from the village amenities.
