Wake Up To Sea Breezes And Waves Breaking,

A Rare Coastal Cottage With Huge Lifestyle Appeal. Set At A Price Point That Reflects The Opportunity To Acquire A Recognisable Coastal Cottage In A Prime Harbour Village, With Scope For A Purchaser To Enhance And Add Value Over Time.

Set within one of the Berwickshire coast's most desirable villages, Ebba Cottage represents a rare and accessible opportunity to secure a detached home in the heart of St Abbs—at a price point that still allows scope to personalise and add value over time.

Lovingly held by the same family for generations and well cared for throughout, the property is comfortably liveable as it stands, while offering buyers the freedom to reimagine the space in a way that suits their own taste and lifestyle. This balance of immediate usability and future potential is increasingly hard to find in such a sought-after coastal setting.

For buyers keen to put their own stamp on a home, the property offers clear opportunities, allowing improvements to be made gradually and thoughtfully, rather than paying a premium for someone else's choices. Some images have been virtually staged to illustrate how the kitchen and dining area could be opened into a single contemporary space.

Just a short walk from the working harbour, dramatic coastal paths and the renowned St Abbs Head Nature Reserve, this charming “chocolate box” cottage offers an exceptional seaside lifestyle with the added benefit of strong connectivity to Edinburgh, making it equally appealing as a main residence or a second home.

The current layout is versatile and adaptable. The ground floor includes a cosy front-facing lounge with traditional fireplace, a spacious dining kitchen with adjoining utility area, two generous double bedrooms, and a modern shower room. Upstairs, a large and flexible room provides options for a third bedroom, second sitting room, studio or home office—ideal for modern living or visiting guests.

Outside, the low-maintenance gardens provide sunny, sheltered spots to relax and enjoy the coastal atmosphere. A detached garage and private driveway add practical appeal, with further potential to adapt the garage space if desired.

In a village where demand for second homes and holiday properties continues to grow, Ebba Cottage stands out as a well-priced, flexible entry into the St Abbs market—offering character, location and lifestyle now, with the opportunity to enhance and add value in the future.
