Heatherlea; An exceptional coastal bungalow with elevated sea views, contemporary interiors and attractive gardens

Heatherlea boasts a magnificent position, with elevated far reaching sea views from the front, this is a highly desirable coastal home with excellent access to all amenities within Berwick Upon Tweed and good onward commuter links.

The detached bungalow offers spacious, light filled interiors that make the most of the views; having been upgraded and modernised by the current owners to now provide contemporary and tasteful presentation throughout.

The property also benefits from planning consent to further extend the conservatory in addition to converting the garage to provide a one bedroom annex; a great prospect if catering for multi-generational living or seeking an opportunity to generate an income stream.

Perfect for modern living, the principal rooms offer a free flowing layout with the conservatory linking to the living room, featuring a cosy stove, and in turn connecting to the sociable, and very smartly upgraded, fully fitted dining kitchen which is the real hub of this home. A neighbouring utility room with door to the garden adds further practicality.

Offering a good degree of flexibility, there is a choice of four bedrooms with the master benefitting from en-suite facilities whilst the others are served by a smart family bathroom.

Providing maximum levels of privacy, the landscaped, well presented gardens extend around the bungalow on all sides and ensure a safe, secure environment. The sea view beyond offers an impressive backdrop. The multi car drive leads to the garage with electric car charging point.
