A Well-positioned Three-bedroom Bungalow In A Sought-after Coastal Village, Available With No Onward Chain Offering Flexible Single-level Accommodation With Excellent Scope For Modernisation, Extension And The Potential To Create Off-street Parking.

Occupying a pleasant corner position within an established cul de sac, this property offers a very rare opportunity for those seeking a family home in this highly sought after coastal fishing village. The property offers space for growing families with room to the side for further extension as well as a large attic which some of the neighbouring properties have converted. Equally this property would be a well-considered purchase for those looking to retire to the coast or downsize; with accommodation arranged on one level, the bungalow offers low maintenance living within a peaceful and established neighbourhood.

The interior now offers an opportunity for a purchaser to add their own stamp with scope for cosmetic upgrading whilst the outside areas offer a blank canvass and a charming space with views towards the coast line around the village. A range of outhouses including a timber summerhouse offer a relaxing space to enjoy the surroundings or with some further development an ideal home office/studio space. Thanks to the corner position there is also potential to create private off street parking if desired.

The practical internal layout offers a dual aspect kitchen which connects directly to the gardens, whilst the sun filled lounge to the rear has a view towards the sea and an open coal fire. Positioned along the hallway are three double bedrooms, one of which boasts extensive storage to once wall, plus the shower room and small entrance vestibule.
