Accommodation Details:

This is a lovely family home, with an inviting driveway for up to ten vehicles with the photo deck speaking for itself.

From the front door you will be welcomed by a hall that directs you to an open plan kitchen with integrated white goods, a double electric range cooker and larder, as well as a boot room, WC and utility, area, a delightful open plan dining area with feature window, a cosy snug and an office all laid with antico flooring with the dining area providing access via French Doors to a spacious garden area with decking which you will see from the photographs is quite outstanding, laid to lawn with a fishpond and larger than typical for the area, with rear gated access and well fenced.

Upstairs you will enjoy three double bedrooms, one with ensuite, a family bathroom with freestanding bath and a nice sized single all nicely carpeted giving a homely feel.

Location & Travel

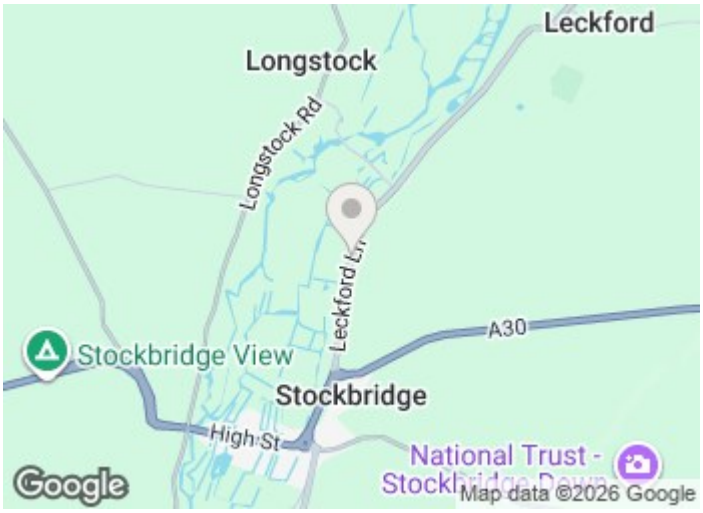

The location of this property is a real feature with access from the left to the village which includes three wonderful pubs, The Greyhound, Three Cups and The White Hart along with The Grosvenor Hotel as well as a plethora of independent shops including a butchers, café, a fruit and veg shop and the infamous 'George Clarke' Interior design boutique.

To the right of the property, you will enjoy the most magnificent country walks leading to Peats Spade, the Mayfly and then on to the ever-popular Leckford Estate, owned by The John Lewis Partnership with its delightful vineyard, nursery and Café.

Andover train station is around 15 minutes' drive and provides train services to London Waterloo, Reading and Yeovil.
The historic City of Winchester is around 10 miles away and Salisbury, circa 20 miles with its 13th-century Gothic cathedral and proximity to Stonehenge and its ancients roots a popular leisure visit over a weekend.
