Milligan Street, London, , E14 8AU

What an area to live in! Simply astounding, the combination of little houses and huge skyscrapers is a true engineering masterpiece. The new combined with the old, the motorways intertwined with walkways. Parks and leisure, offices and work. Canary Wharf and the surrounding area is the right mix for the most exigent.

Living here means being well connected with the rest of London, it means being 10 minutes away from Canary Wharf's plethora of restaurants, bars and cafes. It means being able to enjoy your morning coffee on the banks of the Thames and then be in your 50th floor office within minutes. But more than anything, it means an easy life, being so well connected and close to all of the amenities will ease up more time for your preferred activities.

This superb, four bedroom house is located amazingly convenient right in the middle of them all. Close to transport links should you be a modern city roamer that mainly uses public transport and equally close to the Cycle superhighways should you be the practical cyclist that gets the daily workout done over the trip to and from work. Should you be a motorist, do not despair as we have easy access to the A13 which quickly leads to the Circular and M25 motorways, and two parking spaces in front of the house.
